DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 2-4 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claims 2, 3 In. 1 the phrase "said upper portion whereof comprising" should be

--wherein said upper portion comprises--.

Claim 4 In. 1 the phrase "said lower portion whereof " should be

--wherein said upper portion capable of--.

Claim 4, In. 3, the phrase "of the internal wall", should be --of the external wall-- to be consistent with claim 1, In. 10.

Claim 5, Ins. 4-7, the phrase "upper portion comprising a support surface that is supported upon the ground which serves as a foundation thereof for the purpose of transmitting the forces applied to said frame in such a way that said frame is supported by the ground"; should be --upper portion of said frame further comprising a support surface, supported upon the ground to serve as a foundation thereof and for transmitting applied loads to the ground--. For brevity and clarity.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ann'es # 6,109,824.

Ann'es discloses a self-leveling manhole system that serves to prevent damage to the surrounding roadway from applied traffic loads, said manhole system comprising:

A tubular section (5).

A frame assembly having upper and lower apertures (1, 9) for transmitting surface water away from a road surface. Said frame further comprising:

Upper and lower portions (2/35) and (9) respectively, the upper portion (2) further comprising:

Horizontal walls/support surfaces (26, 27) and inclined walls/support surfaces (37, 38) for supporting said frame upon a support surface such as a sub-base or ground (80), such that applied traffic loads are transmitted to the sub-base or ground.

Said lower portion having downwardly conduit section (9) for directing run-off toward the upper extremity of the tubular section (5).

Wherein said frame is capable of vertical and angular movement via a sliding engagement between the tubular section (9) and a manhole head (5). Said vertical movement being capable of extending the length of the tubular section and responsive to soil heave due to freezing and thawing. See col. 3, ln. 33-col. 4, ln. 41.

In regards to Claims 3, 4 Ann'es discloses the aperture in the upper portion for receiving grate (1) is eccentric relative to the aperture of lower portion, that receives the tubular member (9). See fig. 3. Wherein said frame being capable of sliding the length of the external wall of the tubular section (9) and further being capable of relative angular movement relative to the longitudinal axis of the tubular section (5) in order to accommodate inclined roadways. See Fig. 2, col. 4, lns. 23-41.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Allard # 5,360,284 discloses a concrete drain inlet. Stellmach # 6,402,423 B1 discloses an apparatus for covering a subterranean conduit. Sondrup # 6,524,026 B2 discloses an adjustable utility access. Adam # 1,254,641 discloses an adjustable floor drain.
